

Most of us are not aware of the fact that Butch Doyle was instrumental in authoring a number of firefighting manuals which are still in use throughout the entire United States. I suppose that, in effect, would mean that his work will continue for years to come when firefighting units are called out to do their job. Butch Doyle was also one of ten firemen who was selected to be a recipient of the 1985 Ak-Sar-Ben Firemanship Award which was an honor that he was not even aware of at the time of his death on April 17, 1985. Copies of the resolution will be presented to his wife, Betty, to the Lexington Volunteer Fire Department, of which he was an active member for approximately 40 years, and also to the Nebraska State Volunteer Firefighters Association convening in Grand Island for the annual state fire school this weekend. I would urge the body to vote for LR 265.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Barrett. Is there discussion on LR 265? Senator Lundy.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President, members of the body, I too would rise to support the resolution that has been prepared by Senator Barrett. This gentleman is known throughout the State of Nebraska and throughout the Midwest for his ability to teach, to teach and help people, to teach and help those people that are busy...busily, every day, in the volunteer fire departments of our State of Nebraska and other states. This gentleman was an outstanding person. He served this state in, as Senator Barrett indicated, the Midwest and other states in the scores of articles and books on training of firemen. I rise to heartily support this resolution and ask your support for it. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Lundy. Is there further discussion on the resolution? If not, the motion is to adopt LR 265. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Please record your vote. We are voting on the adoption of resolution 265, which has just been explained by Senators Barrett and Lundy honoring James E. Doyle of Lexington. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of LR 265, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The resolution is adopted. Senator Carsten, we
